

P.R.O.T.E.C.T.

Parents Reaching Out To Educate Communities Together

Protecting Against the Realities of Substance Abuse

Parents/guardians and their middle school and high school students are invited and encouraged to attend together this upcoming forum led by P.R.O.T.E.C.T., a task force of the Unified Prevention Coalition of Fairfax County. Learn from hearing the personal stories of parents, young adults, and professionals about the dangers of substance abuse. Discover the signs and symptoms of teenage drug abuse, what preventive actions parents can take, and where to find supportive resources.

Monday, May 21, 2012, 7 p.m.
Centreville United Methodist Church
Fellowship Hall
6400 Old Centreville Road
Centreville, VA 20121

Programs will include remarks and a question-answer session with:

- Greg Lannes , parent of daughter who died of an overdose
- Greg Richter, parent of daughter in recovery
- Tayler Gibson, young adult in recovery
- Bill Fulton, School Resource Officer Coordinator, Fairfax County Police Department
- Leslie Roberts, Alcohol and Drug Specialist from Fairfax-Falls Church Community Services Board

For more information, contact Jennifer Lewis-Cooper, P.R.O.T.E.C.T. coordinator, jalcooper@aol.com, 703-966-8304, or visit www.unifiedpreventioncoalition.org

P.R.O.T.E.C.T. is a task force of the Unified Prevention Coalition of Fairfax County (UPC) and is a collaborative effort of concerned parents, school-community coalitions, PTSAs, Fairfax County Public Schools' Student Safety & Wellness, Fairfax County Police Department, Fairfax County Alcohol & Drug Youth Services, Fairfax County Neighborhood & Community Services, and Substance Abuse and Recovery Alliance reaching out to educate others about substance abuse, prevention and available resources to PROTECT our children, families, and communities from the dangers of alcohol and other drugs.